

Please keep the do not call list! I was receiving at least 8 to 10 calls a day. With three small children, it was difficult to read a story with them or play a game with them while the phone is ringing all the time. Thank you.